Dear Parent/Carer,

Author Visit

On Wednesday 2nd May, we have the wonderful opportunity of welcoming Charlie Beswick into school. Charlie is a part time primary school teacher and the mother of twins, one of whom was born with a rare cranio facial condition, which lead to her writing her book, starting her own blog and setting up her own charity 'More than a face'. Charlie is coming into school to talk to the children about the process of writing a book and the importance of reading. She will also discuss equality, and in particular how, despite her son Harry's appearance he is just like any other child.

In honour of Charlie coming into school and talking to the children, we are holding an own clothes day on Monday 30th April for a £1 donation, with all proceeds going to 'More than a face'. I have suggested that we all wear something colourful to illustrate how diverse our school is.

You can find Charlie's blog at www.ouralteredlife.com and her book 'Our Altered Life' is available on Amazon.

Your sincerely

Victoria Carr
