Reopening our libraries

We are reopening our libraries as soon as we can, but not all are open as yet and hours may have changed. Please check the website or our social media for updates.

A special Cheshire West and Chester website just for Silly Squad

Enter our fun competitions and be in with a chance to win a £20 national book token. Challenges include writing about a positive lockdown moment, drawing something silly, recommending a book and writing a short story and there's also things to do for young people and adults too.

Silly Squad Acting: Thursday 21 July 2pm

Join Carly Thoms, who played Miss Honey on the "Matilda the Musical" theatre tour, in a Zoom event that combines silliness and acting in equal measure. Brought to you by the Little Actors Theatre from Neston.

Story Time with Mama G: Wednesday 22 July 10.30am and Wednesday 26 August 2.30pm

Mama G is a pantomime dame who loves to tell stories to children and their families, about being who you are. Meet the first lady to go into space, a goat with a wind problem and a fashionista dinosaur called Little Roar.

Silly Face Animation with Make Create: Monday 27 July 10.30am

This online workshop is the perfect introduction to those interested in cartoon animation. During the session, you will be given a crash course on how to use a smartphone or tablet to start creating your own cartoon animations.

Creative Silly Dancing with Cheshire Dance: Wednesday 5 August 10.30am and Wednesday 19 August 10.30am

A fun, creative dance class for children aged 4-7 years. Come along to have a 'Silly Squad' boogie! No previous dance experience is necessary, and this session is suitable for all.
