

History – Year 1 - Lives of significant others

Christopher Columbus	Key vocabulary		Neil Armstrong
 1451-1506 Columbus is thought to have 'discovered' America. Columbus successfully crossed the Atlantic ocean, travelling from Spain to what would later become known as 'the New World'. Thanks to his bravery and determination, Columbus' voyage paved the way for further explorers and adventurers.	astronaut	a person who is trained to travel in a spacecraft	 1930-2012 Neil Armstrong, an American astronaut, was the first man ever to step foot on the moon in 1969. Neil was Commander of the Apollo 11 space mission to be the first crew to orbit and land on the moon. "One small step for man, one giant leap for mankind." "The Eagle has landed." Crew members: Neil Armstrong Buzz Aldrin Michael Collins. famous	known by many people explorer	a person who explores a new or unfamiliar area discoverer	the first person to find or explore a place.
	evidence	the facts or information indicating whether a belief is true commander	person in charge		