Dear Parents

On February 8th it is Safer Internet Day across the UK. As part of the activities for the day, the Cheshire & Wirral Computing Hub are delivering a free 1hour Teams presentation for parents. During this presentation he will address any questions parents send him and will discuss trends the hidden dangers in gaming & social media. This a choice of attending either the 6:00 – 7:00pm or the 7:00 – 8:00pm session. Please see Steve's letter below for a link to send Steve any questions and the link to access the Teams meeting

Safer Internet Day Parent's Talk 8th February

Due to a fantastic response, I am delighted to inform you there will be two, hour long presentations on Safer Internet Day.

I will present on staying safe online addressing questions from parents, looking at what is trending and the hidden dangers in gaming & social media.

If you haven't already posted your questions, please use the link below to request topics to be covered in the talk.
